National Law University, Tripura

Dear Participants,

Warm greetings from the Literary & Debating Society (LDS), National Law University, Tripura!

The Literary & Debating Society (LDS), NLU Tripura, is delighted to present the 3rd National Essay Writing Competition, 2026 – Likhawat 3.0. Likhawat has consistently focused on themes that demand contemporary solutions and thoughtful remedies, encouraging and inviting young minds to participate meaningfully. In this spirit, we are proud to announce this year's theme: "Caste-Based Discrimination in Educational Institutions in India: Reality or Perception?"

Since its inception, Likhawat has garnered wide recognition and enthusiastic participation from across the country. We deeply appreciate the engagement of young minds who bring forth critical thought, nuanced perspectives, and meaningful discourse on pressing contemporary issues and their possible remedies, an objective that lies at the very heart of this competition.

The Literary & Debating Society stands as a forum for intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, eloquence, and a deep appreciation for literature. Over the years, the Society has proudly hosted Inter-University Speech Competitions, Poetry Reading Sessions, Drama Performances, and Classical Music Evenings, fostering a vibrant culture of expression and dialogue.

We warmly invite you to participate in Likhawat 3.0 with an open mind, a passionate heart, and a fearless spirit. Let your essay reflect your insights, your boldest ideas, and your vision for the future of our democracy.

We wish all participants the very best and eagerly look forward to your submissions. Together, let us celebrate the spirit of writing and the transformative power of ideas.

Warmest regards,
The Literary & Debating Society (LDS)

What is Plagiarism?

Plagiarism is the act of using someone else's work or ideas without properly giving them credit. It's essentially presenting someone else's work as if it were your own, whether intentionally or by accident. This can include copying text, using someone else's ideas, or even reusing parts of your own previously submitted work without permission (known as self-plagiarism). Plagiarism is considered dishonest and a breach of academic integrity.

What is AI-generated Content?

AI-generated content refers to any text, idea, or material that is not created by a human author but is instead generated by systems based on Artificial Intelligence, including technologies such as Machine Learning and Natural Language Processing. For the purpose of this competition, such non-human generated content must be strictly limited and shall not exceed 15% of the total submission. Entries must remain primarily original, human-authored, and reflective of the participant's own ideas, creativity, and understanding.
